Silent Unbelief

On a recent Sunday Beecher preached on the various forms of infidelity and the profound change that is going on respecting certain dogmas which have been hitherto held as infallible Here is a paragraph that will be generally recognized as truthful

There are hundreds and thousands of men in our churches who listen to sound orthodox preaching for scores of years and don't believe a word about it. They don't say anything they don't express their unbelief they think the morals taught by the church good, and that therefore it should be encouraged There are lawyers physicians scientific men that sit for years in our churches their beliefs totally at variance with the doctrines taught from the pulpit They attend church for various reasons one has children and he thinks they had better be brought up in the church doctrines one attends because it is respectable another because it is profitable but our churches are filled with men that are very loose in regard to their religious beliefs and are fluctuating and changing perpetually Why I have no doubt that men sit in this congregation and don't believe a word I say [Laughter]

CONGRESSIONAL.

Senate

WASHINGTON June 4

Matthews moved to postpone the Texas Pacific bill until December but subsequently withdrew the motion and Johnston will speak on the bill to morrow

House

The bill organizing the life saving service after discussion passed House then went into committee of the whole on the tariff bill and by a vote of 119 to 86 limited general debate to two hours

Burchard favored revising the tariff and reducing the duties in fairness to all interests Even the imperfect bill now before the house was infinitely better than the present tariff

Garfield appealed to the house not to let so threatening a bill become a law He would after the first clause was read move to strike out the enacting clause

Wood moved the committee rise and the committee refused

Wood then moved it be read entire and after some objections the clerk commenced reading when Conger moved to strike out all after the enacting clause but the chair Tucker refused to entertain the motion and the reading was continued amid great uproar

Butler proposed that a square vote by yeas and nays be taken at noon to morrow which was assented to

The committee rose and the house took a recess

Growing Despondency in Cincinnati

[From the Cincinnati Enquirer]

There is about as much necessity for a congressional investigation of the Louisiana and Florida frauds as there is for an investigation of the marital relations of George Washington and the widow Curtis Heretofore the Republican party was rapidly disintegrating in consequence of the course of the administration on one side and that of Conkling Blaine Howe and their friends on the other It was manifestly to the interest of the Democracy to assist in the process if they desired success in 1880 But now Mr Potter has converted himself into a pair of bellows and Uncle Sammy Tilden is working the handles and between them they are blowing up a fire that is welding the Republican party into a homogeneous mass

A Sad Truth for Hendricks

[From the Cincinnati Commercial]

As Mr S J Tilden is being forced upon the country as the next Democratic candidate for the presidency it may be worth while to say that persons who have recently seen him testify that his appearance is unmistakably that of toughness We do not like to plant a thorn in the pillow of Governor Hendricks but the truth compels us to say that Governor Tilden does not look feeble He looks as if he might live to see his country as proud a land as Mexico

The Creston (Iowa) Gazette having said that Helen Potter the elocutionist was a tramp, she traveled 150 miles to see that reparation was made, and discovered that the editor had said she was a trump but the compositor and proof reader had, by a combination of enterprise transformed the editorial compliment

WEDNESDAY MORNING JUNE 5 1878

IN MULTNOMAH

In Multnomah though Republicans in great numbers voted the independent ticket all the Mitchell candidates for the legislature are successful The fact appears to be that the independent ticket lost almost as many Democratic votes as it gained Republican though this loss was confined mainly to two precincts in the northern part of the city Had the Democrats generally voted the ticket it would have been elected throughout As it is a triumph is claimed for the Mitchell organization in Multnomah but it is a triumph purchased by the loss of a majority in the legislature To elect their legislative ticket in this county they sacrificed the sheriff and worked in a great number of ballots headed with the Democratic state ticket This operation was in progress all day and there would be no majority for the Republican state ticket in Multnomah had not the independent Republicans voted it to a man The number of Democrats who voted the Democratic state ticket and the Mitchell legislative ticket was very large probably almost as large as the number of Republicans who voted for the independent candidates This, in brief is the history of much of the singular voting that took place in Multnomah on Monday Though it is claimed that Multnomah has endorsed Mitchell, much of the voting was done without reference to the main question Many who have the partisan habit and always follow it voted simply according to such habit and others again as the Democrats who refused to support the "fusion" ticket, followed the same habit when they said they couldn't support any but "regular" nominations, and that no Democratic convention had a right to present or endorse a ticket composed in part of men who are not Democrats. Petty reasons like these were stumbled over by great numbers of voters. THE OREGONIAN does not regret the course it has pursued, for it could better afford this, though a majority of voters appears against it, than to have compromised its position by accepting the dictation of those who assumed the right to run politics exclusively in their own interest and insisted on pressing everybody into it, or riding roughly over all protest or dissent

THE LEGISLATURE

The legislature is almost certainly Democratic, although it is likely to be close It is altogether unnecessary to enlarge at this time on the causes which have produced this result. The case is exactly similar to that in California a year ago The result in that state should have been a sufficient warning to political managers in Oregon When that result in California was announced THE OREGONIAN endeavored to draw a lesson from it to be impressed on the attention of those who might seek to force a similar issue in our state this year. It was plain that if any such effort were made the success of the Republican party would be endangered but this obvious fact was unheeded. We cannot tell as yet exactly how the legislature will stand, but there is likely to be a Democratic majority of six to ten on joint ballot In Douglas the Democrats elect all the members of the house. In Lane they elect the senator and two representatives, in Benton the senator and two representatives, in Yamhill the senator and two representatives and in Washington two representatives. They also have all in Linn except possibly one In Jackson they lose one, the independents in that county having elected a representative Several counties are yet to be heard from on members of the legislature, including all east of the mountains It is possible but not likely, that the advantages conceded to the Democrats may be overcome by the full returns

THE STATE TICKET.

The loss of a portion of the Republican state ticket may be feared We entertain no apprehensions of the defeat of Earhart for secretary and Hirsch for treasurer Their success seems assured. It would be easy to make a like claim for all the others, and we could wish there were sure grounds for doing it But there are grounds for doubt, and nothing is made by refusing to consider them Still we regard the chances of Beckman's election as good It is quite certain that Whiteaker beats Hines for congress. The remainder of the Republican state ticket has scarcely so good chances for success as the candidate for governor Beekman is one hundred votes better in Jackson than the other candidates on his ticket. Linn county gives an astonishing majority for the Democratic candidates The greenback movement, of which Republicans expected so much in Linn, results to their disadvantage, Various estimates make the Republican majority in Clackamas on the state ticket about two hundred In Washington it is a little less. Reported Republican majorities on governor foot up about fifteen hundred Against these the Democratic majority south of Willamette will be not above three hundred. Add six hundred for the eastern counties, and Beekman would still have three hundred majority

THE MOIETY SYSTEM

Notwithstanding the outcry against the moiety system in connection with our revenue laws which led to its abolition two or three years ago, it is now claimed that experience has demonstrated its necessity to prevent frauds upon the customs. In a recent communication to the two houses of congress on the subject Secretary Sherman says: "The experience of the last three years has demonstrated the necessity of some such legislative enactment to stimulate the activity of customs officers, and to secure information of frauds upon the customs revenue from persons not employed in the public service With his communication the secretary submits the draft of a bill, which gives to informers not officers of the government one-third the gross proceeds of any duties, fines, penalties or forfeiture that may be recovered through information furnished by them to any chief officers of the customs or district attorney. The bill also proposes to give to any officers of the customs who shall detect and seize goods in the act of being smuggled or fraudulently undervalued or any other device upon the customs revenue one fourth of the gross receipts from fines penalties etc

In the debate in the house of representatives the other day on the bill to appropriate sixty five thousand dollars to the state of Virginia to rebuild William and Mary's college which was damaged, as is alleged by the national troops during the war Gen Bragg of Wisconsin who fought through the war as a Union soldier said that in peace he was the friend of the south as of every other portion of the country but added with emphasis "The people of the north will never submit to be taxed to reimburse your people or your states out of sustained directly or indirectly from your rebellion It was your rebellion you have harvested its fruits and must patiently bear its results bitter though they be

It was not good policy to make the issue "Mitchell or nothing How far this has affected the vote throughout the state we can not say but very probably to no inconsiderable extent Many observers consider it an interpretation of the result There is an undoubted Republican majority in the state but it has been demoralized and diminished by a political management objectionable and even offensive to the people Had manipulators let the party alone and not tried to force their schemes upon it all would have been well

Despondent politicians will be likely to talk now to the effect that the Republican party is annihilated because all their desires are not fulfilled But give the Republican party a chance and it will be stronger than ever in Oregon For several years the insane policy of proscribing many of its members and excluding them from it has been followed and not with good results Let the other and more sensible course be taken henceforward, and the party will be in good condition enough

The bill for the revision of the laws relating to the counting of the electoral vote for president and vice president reported to the senate by Mr Edmunds has for its main feature the principle of separate concurrent agreement of both houses of congress for the rejection of the votes of any state when there is but one return and for the counting of the vote of any elector when there are conflicting returns

There will be no more dispatches on the railroad question The Northern Pacific is finished and as for the Columbus River and Salt Lake road it is laid away for good and all The public now will have a rest on the railroad question

The election being over there will probably be no more work for the workingmen's party for two years

MUSIC IN THE AIR The great San Francisco May festival is closed Already a number of our Oregon delegation have returned with glowing accounts of its grand success in every particular The [illegible] chorus and immense orchestra all under the direction of our dear good old Carl Zerrahn will never be forgotten It would be useless to go into details of the various concerts all the [illegible] newspapers have already chronicled each feature and stamped success "Bravo" en [illegible] to all of them The management of this stupendous undertaking have cause to congratulate themselves of the entire success musically and are deserving of great credit in advancing the taste of that which is good in music and by giving our people an idea of what can be done through unison and harmony The leading eastern soloists Mrs Helen Ames Bellengo soprano Miss Anna Drasdil contralto Mr Fessenden, tenor, and Mr Whitney basso under the direction of our old friend Mr Kinross will make an extended tour throughout California also pay us a visit when an opportunity will be given to the music loving people of our community of hearing the various solos duets and quartettes sung at the festival by the best quartette of artists on the continent. We hope that they will meet with deserving success throughout their tour and especially here and take with them golden opinions of our yet "infant musical country

THE TRINITY ORGAN—Mr. Albert Bartsch, who attends to the organ of the Trinity church desires to say that the frequent mishaps to the instrument is due to the use of the water power, which is not suited to the purpose of working the pump as the organ is at present situated With the application of physical power as instructed, Mr Bartsch says no further trouble need be apprehended.

MUSIC IN THE AIR —The great San Francisco festival is closed Already a number of the delegation have returned with of our Oregon accounts of its grand success in giving particular The and chorus and the the orchestra, all under the direction of good old Carl Zerrahon will never be forgotten. It would be useless to go into details of the various concerts all the newspapers having already chronicled them and stamped success Bravo to all of them The management of the stupendous undertaking have cause to congratulate themselves of the entire success financially, and are deserving of great credit in advancing the taste of that which is good in music and by giving our people an idea of what can be done through unison and harmony. The leading eastern soloists Mrs Ames Bellengo soprano Miss Anna contralto, Mr Fessenden tenor and Whitney, basso, under the direction of old friend, Mr Kinross, will make an extended tour throughout California also pay us a visit, when an opportunity will be given the music loving people of our community of hearing the various solos, duets and quartettes sung at the festival by the best quartette now on the continent We hope that they will meet with deserving success throughout their tour and especially here to take with them golden opinions of our infant musical" country

A TERRIBLE TRAGEDY.

KITRIDGE PORTER OF CLACKAMAS COUNTY MURDERS ONE OF HIS CHILDREN DURING A FIT OF TEMPORARY INSANITY—THE MANIAC IN JAIL

Last Sunday a fearful tragedy was enacted in Clackamas county a short distance from Oregon City The following are the circumstances of this shocking homicide

The name of the unfortunate man is Kitridge Porter who with his wife two children aged three and one years) and his twin brother Kelse came to Oregon about four months ago from Jefferson Iowa Kitridge worked on Mr Bartlett's place (formerly Church's) about half a mile above the Clackamas paper mill According to Mrs Porter Kit as she calls him must have been insane all last Saturday night but she attributed his sayings and doings to religious zeal and had no idea that he was demented until after breakfast Sunday morning when he burst in the door of the house, and with an ax in his hands rushed in and cried I am crazy down on the floor every one of you or I will kill you Mrs Porter and the three year old boy Johnny whom she was dressing at the time got down on their knees and urged him not to kill them he at the same time brandishing the ax round at a furious rate He then ordered Mrs Porter to get up and go and call Kelse who he said was hid under the hay in the cattle shed and to give Johnny to Kelse that he might hide him in the woods where the devil could not find him She went and called for Kelse as loud as she could but he was not within hearing distance and did not come She reported to her husband that she could not find him

He then ordered her to take Johnny to the woods herself and hide him where the devil could not find him Mrs Porter took the little girl in her arms the little boy running before her, and made all haste to reach the cattle shed three or four hundred yards distant in hope that she would find Kelse there as her husband had said he was there or else reach the nearest neighbor's half a mile distant but Kelse had not been at the shed at all Before she got there she looked back and her husband was running after her and only a short distance away with the ax in his hand He came up to her gave her the ax and told her to bury it where he could not find it but a moment later he forced it away from her Porter then spoke endearing words to Johnny took him in his arms and kissed him He then ran off with the child to hide him in the woods On seeing this Mrs Porter began to shout murder and Kelse being within hearing ran to her assistance The husband and father on observing his brother running toward him instantly stopped put the child down on the ground, and struck it on the head with the ax inflicting a fearful gash and producing instant death The whole sickening scene took place in full view of and only a very short distance from the horror stricken mother who was helpless to prevent the murder After the commission of the crime Porter laid down the ax looked at the dead child a moment then turned and ran toward Kelse shook hands with him kissed him and ran away shouting and leaping like a maniac Kelse then went to where Mrs Porter was standing almost paralyzed with terror, took the child from her arms and told her to follow him They then made their way to the nearest neighbor's house, keeping as much as possible out of the way Mrs Porter is of the opinion that if Kelse had not come just when he did her husband would have murdered them all

A few neighbors were called for assistance and in a short time the maniac was taken without resistance and conveyed to Oregon City where he was lodged in jail The coroner held an inquest but the verdict is not known at present The remains of the unfortunate child was buried Monday afternoon from the Methodist Church in Oregon City

We are informed that Kelse Porter, brother of the maniac murderer became insane yesterday very soon after he returned from the funeral of his little nephew His insanity is attributable to the great mental strain and shock caused by the tragical affair

THE POTTER COMMITTEE.

THE COMMITTEE SUFFICIENTLY ROCK ROOTED TO MAKE OUT A GOOD CASE—SKETCHES OF THE PECULIARITIES OF THE VARIOUS MEMBERS.

[Washington Special, May 29th, to Chicago Times.]

It is as good a committee as could be expected. Practically upon such committees the work is left to one or two men, and there are enough men of brains upon the committee to keep it somewhere within bounds.

Potter, the chairman, is a good lawyer, a hard worker, and a man of the world of special knowledge that will serve him in a judicial inquiry.

Morrison is the ugliest man upon the committee. He has unusual judgment and a keen common sense that give his opinions great value. He is strongly prejudiced, believes Hayes is a fraud, and that evidence can be found. He also does not see any reason why Hayes should not be turned out if found guilty. At the same time he is not a lover of Sam Tilden.

Hunton, of Virginia, is a good lawyer, a very fair man, but very heavy and sluggish. He has more of the judicial than the investigating mind.

Stenger, of Pennsylvania, is a very young man, only thirty-eight. In appearance, he is but a mere boy, and is often taken as a clerk in the committee rooms. He is one of the richest men in the house, and this accounts for the prominence given him by Randall. Stenger has cool manners and good common sense. While he may never rise to brilliancies he is never guilty of absurdities. McMahon, of Ohio, is decidedly one of the best men in the lot. He is a clear-headed, nervous, snappy man, whom no one can scare or confuse. He made a most brilliant record before the senate as the principal cross examiner of witnesses in the Belknap trial. Cobb, of Indiana, was merely put on because Hendricks' state was to have one member. He is a new member, a lawyer, and will fill a chair around a committee table well enough. Blackburn, of Kentucky, the next man, is an irreconcilable. He will go it to revolution, if need be, to make a case against Hayes.

The Republicans are much dissatisfied with Butler's presence upon the committee, as he is known to be in favor of an investigation, but he has rendered so much service to the Democrats that he had to be given a place. J. D. Cox, of Ohio, the next Republican member, is also unsatisfactory to the ultra Radicals, because he is not a partisan. He is a great friend of the president, however. Hiscock and Reed, the other Republican members, are new in congress, fair lawyers and rabid anti Hayes men. The committee will probably meet to-morrow to organize. It is understood that the sessions of the committee will be open.

English Crops and Markets.

LONDON, June 4.—The Mark Lane Express says by the most hopeful observers it can scarcely be said that the state of wheat and barley on heavy low lying land is other than extremely critical. The crops are weak, discolored and rotten in some places from prolonged immersion, and even on light lands harvest prospects are two or three sacks per acre worse than a month ago. If the rain speedily ceases and a long dry spell of weather succeeds, some but not all of the damage may be repaired. Such unfavorable change in the prospect of the English wheat crop would once have had a marked effect upon prices, but so independent has this country become of indigenous grain that the reverse has actually been the case, and values have receded 1 to 2 shillings all over the Kingdom, both for English and foreign produce. The immediate causes of this depression are the enormous shipments from America, with splendid prospects of abundant crops this year, and the feeling that our differences with Russia will be peacably adjusted. The result is a general stagnation of trade, which has moved within narrow limits throughout the week. Wheat and maize are only saleable at a shilling reduction, and even then only in retail quantities. Quotations are now at a peace level. The possible renewal of the continental demand may occur to rally prices somewhat against the depressing effect of heavy prospective supplies from America and Russia. Sales of English wheat last week were 35,555 quarters at 59½s, against 21,689 quarters at 59s. 6d. last year. Imports into the kingdom for the week ending May 25th were 749,504 cwts. wheat and 9,908 cwts. flour.

DR. PAUL M. BRENAN.

His Wonderful Success
IN THE TREATMENT OF ALL
Chronic and Difficult Diseases.

He has astonished the People of this Coast by his skillful Operations.

HE HAS TAUGHT IN HIS public and private lectures the true principles of health and life to both male and female. He has also warned them against habits that would be likely to produce disease, in plain and comprehensive language. But where he has found them crushed and broken down by disease, mentally and physically, he has restored them to health and happiness, for it is well understood that without health there can be no happiness.

DR. BRENAN has made a specialty in the treatment of the following diseases: Catarrh, Bronchitis, and all diseases of the throat and chest, by an entirely new system only known to himself. Diseases of the Kidneys and Urinary Organs, including Spermatorrhea, Seminal Weakness or premature loss of Manhood. In the treatment of these diseases he has made a world wide reputation by his astonishing success, not only on this Coast but throughout the whole United States. Diseases of the stomach, bowels, liver and kidneys as well as all diseases of the blood and skin he has become master of, and never fails to give relief at once, and permanently cures the case if he is applied to in time.

THE DOCTOR HAS GIVEN SPECIAL LECTURES to ladies only for years and is perfectly familiar with all female complaints, and understands their delicate and refined organization, as well as the proper remedies which should be used to allay their suffering and restore them to perfect health.

THE DOCTOR HAS THIS ADVANTAGE over most physicians—he can tell the patients' disease the moment he comes in contact with them without any aid from the individual. This accounts in part for his great professional success.

All surgical operations can be performed by his skillful hand, and the patient need not fear the result.

DR. BRENAN will send to those living at a distance and who cannot well visit his office a list of Printed Questions and by the answers when filled out he can tell the disease as well as the proper treatment almost as well as seeing the patient personally, and will forward the proper medicines, or instruments, to any part of the country with full instructions and advice. Each letter requiring advice or list of questions, must contain two postage stamps.

Everything strictly confidential and honorable.

THE DOCTOR has studied in the best Medical Schools in Europe and three years in the Jefferson Medical College at Philadelphia, as more than one of the Medical men of the Medical Faculty in this State can testify.

CAUTION.

Persons coming to Portland, requiring medical treatment of the proper kind, who desire to consult with me, will please beware of persons who may try to coax them away to other so-called Doctors, through pretended friendship for the patients. Look out for them; they are knaves, prompted by selfish motives and what they can make. Be sure and ask for DR. PAUL M. BRENAN, the Medical Lecturer, and read his sign on his door.
